Dedication

ROBERT GAMES

We the Senior class of 1953, take great pleasure in dedicating this issue of the "Willow" to our class sponsor, Mr. Robert Games, who hos worked untiringly with us through our junior and senior year. We hope in this issue we can express to some degree our appreciation for all he has done for us. Please accept this small token, Mr. Games, as our most grateful thanks for your help in the past months. During the years to come, may this annual recall to your mind pleasant memories of your time well spent inassisting us toward our goals in life.

History

The sun was up and 32 little children tripped gaily and eagerly into the first grade room. We had as our teacher Mrs. Leistner, who worked with us until we were on our way to higher education.

When we returned to school the next year, we had for our teacher, Miss Brookhart. From then on it was Miss Weinman as our third grade teacher, Mrs. Bain as our fourth grade teacher, Mrs. Bowen as our fifth grade teacher and Mr. Sipe and Mr. Lucas as our seventh and eighth grade teachers respectively. Being an eighth grader, that meant that we would all have the eighth grade test to look forward to and how we all dreaded that day! But to our amazement it was not so defying at all.

The summer passed and we returned as "Greenies", with Mrs. Vining as Our sponsor. Completely ignorant of high school life, we lost our way to classes, and turned up at the right place at the wrong time. After a few weeks, however, everyone had recovered sufficiently, only to face "Freshmen Initiation."

This was a sad day, indeed, with all the becoming make-up smeared on our faces. The girls wore men's underwear backwards and bib overalls inside out, and backwards with many peculiar accessories. The boys paraded around in short dresses made from gunny sacks with their slips hanging out. We were all generously treated to onions when we misbehaved. The first period after dinner the seniors took us up town and treated us to ice cream bars, which tasted very good after all the onions. This was a day that we will always remember as long as we live.

All this accomplished, we were happy to turn over the job of being Freshmen to the oncoming "Greenies" while we journeyed on as Sophomores with little knowledge of how busy we would be. Our sponsor for this year was Mr. Manken, who ably assisted us in our activities. When we returned as Juniors, we were lucky to have Mr. Games as our sponsor, who worked untiringly with us in projects we undertook. At last, Seniors! As upperclassmen we were then busier than all other years put together. The work was enjoyed, though, when we knew it would be our last. Finally we reached our goal------Commencement. Four wonderful years of fun and hard work are now gone forever, but we take with us, a knowledge of life which has laid for us a foundation as the citizens of tomorrow. As we each go on our way, the class of "53" says to you, Willshire High, "THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES."

Class Will

WE, the Senior Class of 1953, being of sound minds and bodies, but of poormemories, do make, ordain, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

First, we will to the Junior Class our enormous appetites at dinner time, and also our second helpings which we most generally get.

Second, we will to the Sophomore Class our ability to get in and out of detention, and our worn and torn books that we can never find.

Third, we will to the Freshman Class all of our left over lipstick, make-up, and that sweet smelling perfume CORRAL NUMBER 4, from Initiation Day.

I, Tom Baker, will my red hair to "Slew Foot" Stetler, my basketball shoes to Vernon Kuhn, my good grades to Elodee Nye and my bashfulness to Susie Caffee.

I, Jack Bayles, will my seat in study hall to Rosie Ross and the gum under it to John Hunter, my ability not to get arrested for speeding to Ed Hileman, my ability to get kicked out of school to George Schaffner, and my love for skating to Duane Krall and Larry Samples.

I, Eileen Black, will my third seat in study hall by the radiator to Susie Caffee, my ability to stay out of trouble to Connie Marbaugh, my ability to get along with everyone to Colleen Weinman and my shyness to Mary Huffman.

I, Arley Buckmaster, will my ability to get along with some teachers to Jack Stetler, by baseball suit to anyone who can catch better than I can, my basketball suit to Ed Hileman, and my seat to Tom Marbaugh.

I, Don DeBolt, will my position as official window putter upper to any strong bodied junior boy, my ability to get along with Mr. Griffith to Jack Stetler, my blind cord to Susie caffee, and my beat-up textbooks to any junior who has the peculiar habit of studying.

I, Lois DeBolt, will my seat to Mary Byers, my curly hair to Carolyn Dull and my blue eyes to Ruby Merkle and my commercial law book to whoever is dumb enough to take it.

I, Marlene "Sue" Harmon, do hereby will to Larry Samples my seat in study hall, my ability to keep quiet and listen at least once in awhile, to Carolyn Dull, my noisy gum-chewing habit to John Hunter, my love for school and teachers to Jack Stetler, and my majorette suit to any one who wants to slide into it. Also my "running around" to Wilma Schumn and my short haircut to Freddie Marsee.

I, Jim Habegger, will my seat in study hall to Ed Hileman, my super deluxe paper wad shooter to Jack Stetler, the erasers in my desk to Dale Lautzenheiser, my blind cords to Gene Merkle, my ability to get along with the teachers to Robert Merkle and the chewing gum under my seat to Carolyn Dull.

I, Yvonne Voltz, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Mary Huffman, my leadership ability to Robert Merkle, and my early Monday mornings to Rosemary Ross.

I, Mary Weddle, will my ability to have perfect attendance to Shirley Deitsch and my love for sports to Wilma Schumn. My seat to any junior.

I, Sandra Hey, will my long hair to Shirley Deitsch, my tallness to Vernon Kuhn, my job in the cafeteria to anyone who needs money, and my love for public speaking to Mary Huffman and John Hunter.

I, Sandra Hoblet, will my seat in band and ability to get along with Mrs. Vinings to Susie Caffee, my seat in study hall to any cold-blooded junior, my bashfulness to Tom Marbaugh, and my love for school to Ed Hileman.

I, Joan Kuhlberg, will my long straight blond hair to Ruby Merkle, my "Bashfulness" to Linda Herron, my like of teachers and ability to get along with them to Ed Hileman, my knack for getting in and out of trouble to anyone who has said trouble, my fingernails (claws) to Ruth Huston, my ability to get out of work and classes to Tom Marbaugh and Kay Clouse, and my LOVE for-----to Wilma Schumm.

I, Carol Kuhn, will to brother, Vernon, the seat I occupy in study hall, my physics seat to anyone who is unfortunate enough to take physics, my brown hair and green eyes to Shirley Deitsch, and my bashfulness to Rosemary Ross and Mary Byers.

I, Larry Marbaugh, will my ability to get kicked out of class to George Schaffner, my ability to play basketball to Duane Krall, my ability to run around and stay out late at night to Carolyn Dull and last but not least my seat in study hall to Gene Merkle.

I, Jim McClain, will my seat in study hall to Tom Marbaugh, the right to play with the window blind to Dale Lautzenheiser, my knob to regulate the heat register to Larry Samples and all the gum under my desk to Vernon Kuhn, if he can stand to chew it the third time.

I, Anna Miller, will my seat in study hall to Freddie Marsee, my blonde hair to Elodee Nye, and all my tattered and torn books to whoever is lucky enough to get them.

I, Gene Price, will my seat in the study hall to Tom Marbaugh, my ability to get along with Mr. Black to Jack Stetler, all my stolen pencils to Rolland Luginbill, and my staying home to sleep on Monday to Larry Samples.

I, Kay Slusser, will my position as editor of the Willscribe to Kay Clouse, my clarinet reeds to Shirley Buchanan, my ability to get along with Mr. Compton to Norma Luginbill, and my peculiarly colored glasses to Robert Merkle.

I, Paul Schaffner, will to Carolyn Dull my ability to get along with the boys, the gum under my seat to Connie Marbaugh, and my seat in study hall to Rolland Luginbill.

I, Les Strickler, will my stolen pencils along with the girls to Larry Samples, and my pineapple haircuts to George Schaffner.

I, Virgie Thatcher, will my ability to write letters to Ruth Huston, my books to have and hold to Norma Luginbill and Shirley Deitsch.

I, Marlene Trisel, will my last seat in study hall to Roland Luginbill, my cheerleading suit to Susie Caffe, my love for typing to Dale Lautzenheiser and my drum majorette suit to one of the Junior majorettes.

Senior Prophecy

A Visit To Willshir

One day in the year of 1969, I decided to come back to good old Willshire to find out how things were going. It seems that Willshire has become a large city and rates third largest in the United States.

As I entered the business district, I was surprised when I saw the famous "McClain Brewery" owned by the prosperous Jim McClain, who is still a bachelor. The Brewery's head man is Lester Strickler who drinks up half the profit. Lester, by the way, married Sandra Hoblet who is now the Superintendent of Nurses in the new General Hospital. The Hospital has two very competent nurses. They are Marlene Harmon, who is in charge of the Maternity Ward, and Sandra Hey, who is a surgical nurse.

There are two other new establishments in Willshire. One is the newspaper, The Willshire Babble, edited by Kay Slusser, and the other is the all-modern school. One of the school's best teachers is Eileen Black.

Farther on down main Street there were horns blowing and the traffic had to stop. All I could see at first was a tassel of red hair; then I noticed it was a farmer from way-back my old pal, Tom Baker, bringing in a load of corn to the Price Elevator. Gene also owns one of the largest estates in Willshire. Farther on we came to one of the egg hatcheries owned by Jack Balyes.

As I turned down Nightly Avenue, I saw the Swank 25 Club, which is owned by James Habeggar, his chef bouncer happens to be the tough Arley Buckmaster. It seems that James has the world-famous Marlene Trisel, who is known in private life as Mrs. Dave Ripley, booked for a week stand in his club. Marlene does a song and dance routine. Joan Kuhlberg is the cigarette girl. Hmmm, cute, too! Joanie, I hear pulls in a cool $2,000 nightly from the tips given hereby oil millionaires. Larry Marbaugh is James' top-notch crooner. Larry lives with his new bride in a penthouse in the Schaffner Hotel. The hotel, as I later saw, was 32 stories high and is owned by Paul Schaffner, who has a chain of hotels.

Conveniently located a few blocks away from the hotel is the Church of God. The minister is the Rev. Don DeBolt. Don has a congregation of an average of 3,000 every Sunday.

Further dawn Nightly Avenue we see the new Broadway Star Theater. The owners are Anna Lou Miller and Carol Kuhn. The two girls are quite a success.

As the day is nearing an end I decided to fill up the gas tank before leaving. I drive to a filling station and who do I see but Mary Weddle, who runs the station.

I asked Mary if she knew what happened to the last two of the Seniors of 1953. She said that Virgie Thatcher is married and on a large ranch in Arizona and that Yvonne Voltz, who is married to a sailor husband, is traveling abroad.

Oh! By the way, Mr. Games, the sponsor of the Senior Class was elected President in the last election on the Republican Ticket.

SENIOR POEM

"Out of the Harbor into the Deep," is the motto of our class,
And this motto we hope to keep in the future as in the past.

At the teachers assignments we sometimes did grumble,
And day after day o'ver our lessons did stumble.

But we learned to take it with just a slight frown,
Our troubles, oh yes, and our ups and downs.

Just now as we are ready to depart from good old W. H. S.
We suddenly realize that our education was a first step to success.

Some are laughing with joy; others smiling through teors,
Because behind them are those good old high school years.

Now is just the beginning, this we all know,
With first base reached, we still have several to go.

So when opportunity knocks, the ambitious ones will run,
Nothing will stop them, no, nothing under the sun.
